Stay and Visit® Italy - Orofino Tours proudly offers an "Unpack Once" extension to: Florence and Venice. Let us whisk you away on this classic tour. All you have to do is to continue your Italian experience by visiting Florence and the ever romantic Venice. Breakfast (B) will be continental style.

Day 9 - Sun – Florence - Do not pack your luggage since you will be staying at the same four star Grand Hotel Olympic in Rome. This morning you will be on your way to Florence on board a fast and comfortable train. The heart of the world's Renaissance, Florence is an open-air exhibition of art and culture where culture is a way of life rather than a matter of prestige. Today you will visit the Uffizi Art Gallery (admission not included), the Duomo and Ponte Vecchio. Florence is famous worldwide and is the home of fine arts and literature. It has powerful symbols of Italian and European culture in every nook and cranny, to the extent that it is hard to identify this city with just one symbol. It may be the sculpture of David or, perhaps, the romantic Ponte Vecchio or Giotto's bell tower. Florence could also be represented by famous people such as Leonardo Da Vinci, Michelangelo or Dante Alighieri, to name but a few. In late afternoon we will return to Rome to our Grand Hotel Olympic, our home away from home. Train tickets and admissions not included. (B)

Day 10 - Mon - Venice – Pack a small bag for one night stay in Venice. Your main luggage will remain at your hotel front desk in Rome. We will depart early by train to Venice and we'll check in at our first class 3 star hotel in Venice Lido. Venice or "La Serenissima" is world-famous for its canals, built on an archipelago of 122 islands with about 150 canals in a shallow lagoon and all connected by 400 bridges. Venice is considered one of the most beautiful cities in the world and, certainly, one of the most unique for its appearance, history and urban structure. The grandiose St. Mark's

YOUR BUSINESS DOOR

Basilica and Square is definitively the civic and religious heart of Venice and, perhaps, one of the most beautiful in the world with famous cafes, elegant shops, and orchestras entertaining the international crowds competing for their applause. The Doge's Palace houses many works of art by Bellini, Tintoretto, Titian, and Veronese. The Bridge of Sighs, adjacent to the Palace was named not for sighs of love but for sighs of the condemned as they cast a last glance at Venice through the windows along the way. The Rialto Bridge is the oldest and most famous of the bridges spanning the Grand Canal. You are encouraged to explore the magic and flavor of Venice either by 'gondola', water taxis or by venturing yourselves on foot through the back alleys and canals, before returning to our hotel in Venice Lido. Train tickets, water taxis and admissions not included. (B)

Day 11 - Tue - Venice Lido – The morning is at leisure. Since the 1800 the Lido was popular with artists and poets such as Shelley and Byron. Thomas Mann made it famous with his novel "Death in Venice" which was made into a film by Luchino Visconti. The focal point of the jet set is "Viale Santa Maria Elisabetta" with a myriad of luxurious shops and boutiques. The "Palazzo del Cinema" has hosted the Film Festival since 1932, bringing famous stars and directors between August and September to Venice. In the afternoon we will go back to Rome by train to our four star Grand Hotel Olympic. Train tickets, water taxis and admissions not included. (B)

Day 12 - Wed - Rome - 7:00 AM group transfer to Fiumicino airport and Stazione Termini train station. (Transfer will be at your expenses for different dates and times). Have a safe return home, treasure the memories... grazie and arrivederci a presto! (B)

We reserve the right to change the itinerary and schedule times for logistic reasons.
